

COADJESCENTE, DA MULHER E DO IDOSO

Ao Sr. Deputado LS muel

Para emissão de parecer.

Em 07 / 05 / 24

Prazo do Relator 23 / 05 / 24

Prazo da Comissão 06 / 06 / 24

Presidente

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the President's policy for the new year. The letter is written in a very formal and dignified style, and it is a very good example of the President's power and authority.

2. The second part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Treasury, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the Secretary's policy for the new year. The report is written in a very formal and dignified style, and it is a very good example of the Secretary's power and authority.

3. The third part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the Interior, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the Secretary's policy for the new year. The report is written in a very formal and dignified style, and it is a very good example of the Secretary's power and authority.

4. The fourth part of the document is a report from the Secretary of the War, dated January 1, 1861. It is a very important document, as it sets out the Secretary's policy for the new year. The report is written in a very formal and dignified style, and it is a very good example of the Secretary's power and authority.

The first part of the report deals with the general situation of the country. It is a very interesting and informative study of the country's development. The second part of the report deals with the specific details of the country's development. It is a very detailed and thorough study of the country's development.

The third part of the report deals with the specific details of the country's development. It is a very detailed and thorough study of the country's development.

The fourth part of the report deals with the specific details of the country's development. It is a very detailed and thorough study of the country's development.

The fifth part of the report deals with the specific details of the country's development. It is a very detailed and thorough study of the country's development.

The sixth part of the report deals with the specific details of the country's development. It is a very detailed and thorough study of the country's development.

The seventh part of the report deals with the specific details of the country's development. It is a very detailed and thorough study of the country's development.

The eighth part of the report deals with the specific details of the country's development. It is a very detailed and thorough study of the country's development.

RECEIVED
JAN 10 1964

TO THE DIRECTOR
OF THE BUREAU OF RESEARCH
AND ANALYSIS
U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
WASHINGTON, D.C.

Enclosed for the Bureau of Research and Analysis are two copies of a report titled "The Role of the Police in the Control of Crime" prepared by the Police Research Institute, University of Cambridge, England. The report is dated 1963 and is a summary of the findings of a study conducted by the Police Research Institute. The study was conducted in 1962 and 1963 and involved a survey of police officers in England and Wales. The report discusses the role of the police in the control of crime and the factors that influence the effectiveness of police action. It also discusses the role of the police in the prevention of crime and the factors that influence the effectiveness of police action. The report is a valuable contribution to the understanding of the role of the police in the control of crime and the factors that influence the effectiveness of police action.

JAN 10 1964

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE
BUREAU OF RESEARCH AND ANALYSIS